Seattle Specialty takes further steps toward Business Continuity Plan certification.

Everett, WA, Wednesday, July 15, 2009 - Seattle Specialty Insurance Services, Inc. announced today further steps toward their Business Continuity Plan Certification. As a leading supplier of specialty insurance services, Seattle Specialty is committed to Best Practices and providing uninterrupted service to its financial institution clients.

Business continuity management systems are designed to ensure continued operations in the event of a business disruption; such as, an unforeseen disaster, terrorist attack, or pandemic. The desktop exercise that took place on Friday, July 10th, 2009 is part of ongoing testing of the Seattle Specialty Business Continuity Plan. The executive team anticipates BCP certification to be completed in coming weeks.

Duncan Morrison, Business Continuity Coordinator and Vice President of Operations stated, "This is another example of our commitment to provide ongoing, secure, and reliable solutions to our clients."
